Dear all,

The annual meeting of the European Embryo Transfer Society (AETE conferences: 2008 Pau, 2009 Poznan, 2010 Kuopio) provides an ideal platform within a familiar atmosphere for presentation of new results and simultaneously inspires discussions leading to new cooperation and exchange activities.

To follow the mind of the European Society it is a pleasure for me to announce the forthcoming 27th AETE conference in Chester, UK, 9th to 10th September 2011.

You are kindly invited to submit abstracts according to all the exciting work you have done within the frame of AETE.
